The Eugene McDermott Scholars Program

The McDermott Scholars Program will select Scholars for the 2022-2023 academic year.

We are pleased to be recruiting outstanding high school senior candidates for a challenging and fulfilling college experience as 2022 McDermott Scholars. McDermott Scholarships are awarded to students with records of outstanding academic achievement, outstanding leadership and service, and a commitment to participate in the extracurricular, leadership, and service dimensions of the McDermott Scholars Program.

The Essentials
- academic/intellectual achievement,
- leadership/service,
- and commitment to participate beyond academics, combined with mentored meaningful growth experiences, enable individual and collective transformation.

The Award
- Up to 20 four-year McDermott Scholarships will be awarded each year
- The Scholarship is awarded for four years while the Scholar earns a UT Dallas bachelor’s degree
- The Scholarship provides:
  - Required tuition and mandatory fees
  - Stipends for housing and living (in their first year at UT Dallas, Scholars live in campus residence halls and hold a meal plan)
  - Development resources, including:
    - Leadership training through seminars and cohort experiences
    - Funding for study abroad and other engagement
    - Program staff
  - Membership in the University’s Hobson Wildenthal Honors College and its Collegium V academic honors program (be sure to apply for CV by December 1)

Anyone interested in the McDermott opportunity must submit their complete application file for UT Dallas admission by the university’s December 1 Priority Deadline.

A note about supplemental materials: Standardized test results, such as AP score reports, are not used by the McDermott Program.
