Renee’ Green

Administrative Services Officer 972.883.2094
renee.green@utdallas.edu

Renee’ is a military veteran who has worked in higher education for over 10 years. This venture began at her local community college (DCCCD). While working there, she obtained her Bachelor’s degree in English at the University of North Texas, where her passions for teaching, professional development, and student development heighten as well as her goals of being of service not only for her community but for other students. She began working for the University of Texas at Dallas just over five years ago as an admin in JSOM’s Marketing department. While there, she obtained her Master’s in Information Technology with a minor in Project Management. After finding an opportunity for advancement with University Recreation (UREC), she has now become a member of the McDermott family as our new Administrative Services Officer.
